

Thank you for worshipping with us tonight!

Please be sure you have registered your attendance with us on the sign-in sheet in the hallway. If you are a guest or visitor with us, pick up our newsletter, The OPCC Scene, or see our website for current event, activity, opportunity, and contact information here at OPCC.

COVID-19 Protocols

Please social distance from people who are not in your household. Face masks must be worn the entire time you are at OPCC, except for when actively taking communion. Our complete "Returning to OPCC Covenant" is available in the church entryway and on our website at www.bit.ly/opccInPerson

For those with children...

Make yourself comfortable in the Sanctuary, and/or in our family-friendly worship space in the Overflow Room. We welcome the sounds and movements of little ones that remind us God is moving in our midst! If you need different/additional space for your little one, our nursery is open for your use, but is not staffed tonight. You are welcome to use this space located up the east hallway on the right hand side (toward the Fellowship Hall).

We gratefully acknowledge those who have donated poinsettias or made donations to the OPCC Food Pantry in memory of, or in honor of, loved ones. Poinsettias may be taken home following tonight's service.

(“Jesus Your King Is Born”) Indian Christmas Carol, 1642, arr. Frances L. Callahan

Invitation to Worship

Pat Gilling

one: An unmarried teenage girl was invited —

all: to carry Christ into this world.

one: An ordinary carpenter was invited —

all: to be a father to a child unlike any other.

one: The shepherds were invited —

all: outcast and isolated, included at the manger.

one: The Magi were invited —

all: foreigners and seekers, included at the manger.

one: And if she was invited, and he was invited, and they were invited — all: then we can trust that we too are invited.

one: This story is for us.

all: This love is for us.

one: Family of faith, this is our invitation.

all: Welcome home.

Opening Hymn

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

Hymnal #119; vv 1,2,4

Invocation

Rev. Chuck Pickel

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

The Reiter family

In God's house, there is hope — for God loves us too much to leave us just as we are.

(lighting of the purple candle of hope)

In God's house, there is peace — for all that separates us from God falls away.

(lighting of the purple candle of peace)

In God's house, there is joy — because God created music, and coffee, and dance floors, and laughter that is contagious, and endless rounds of peek-a-boos with babies; and if those things have God's fingerprints, then God's house surely exudes joy.

(lighting of the pink candle of joy)

In God's house, there is love — because God is love, from start to finish, and that love exists for us all.

(lighting of the purple candle of love)

And in the center of our hope, in the center of our peace, in the center of our joy, in the center of our love, is God — who came to this earth to dwell among us.

(lighting of the white Christ candle)

So tonight we light the Christ candle, for God's love just could not stay away.

Welcome home. Amen.

THE RESPONSE — We Respond in Worship

Prayers of the People

Rev. Chuck Pickrel

Our Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
